With Her Boarder, Husband Declares in Answer to Divorce Suit. The State Bank Cases Again.

William Newcomer, through his attorneys, Craine and Snyder, yesterday filed his answer to the petition of his wife, Della Newcomer, praying for a divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty. In his answer he denies all the allegations of cruelty set forth in her petition, and says he did not leave her home for the reason set forth in her petition, but on the contrary alleges that in September, 1905, one John Walker, began boarding and lodging at their residence in the town of Minerva, and that thereafter his wife paid more attention to Walker than she did to the defendant. He further alleges his wife became infatuated to such an extent with the said John Walker that they went fishing together; that plaintiff refused to go to church with him, but secretly was accompanied to and from church by said John Walker. Defendant asks that his wife's petition be dismissed and that he go hence with his costs.

PETITION FILED.

J. H. Harmon, through his attorney, Roscoe McCulloch, filed his petition in the common pleas court against Impertis Martin, asking that a certain contract for the transfer of real estate property, located at No. 706 East Lake street, belonging to plaintiff, and a tract of land located in Crystal Park addition, belonging to defendant, be reformed so as to include all of the tract of land owned by said defendant in said addition and that the court order the records in the office of the county recorder to be cancelled, where-in it is alleged the defendant afterwards conveyed a portion of the Crystal Park addition to his wife.

CRIMINAL DOCKET.

Judge Bow called the criminal probate court docket in court room No. 2 Friday morning at 10 o'clock. The docket shows 17 cases for trial this term, security for costs having been furnished in 10 cases. The term will begin Monday, June 18, the jury for the term having previously been drawn.

THE STATE BANK CASES.

The attorneys on both sides of the case just decided by the circuit court, with reference to the question of the constitutionality of the Ohio free banking act, have prepared separate journal entries setting forth the findings of the court.

Prosecutor Upham and his associate, Attorney John Craine, met with Attorneys Virgil P. Kline, Lynch and Welty, who represent the principal defendants in the controversy, in Mr. Welty's office Friday afternoon, and as was expected a hitch occurred, in other words the attorneys could not agree upon the entry to be spread upon the journal. It will now be necessary for the attorneys to present their entries to the circuit court for an order from said tribunal as to which entry really does set forth the findings of the court.

Attorney Virgil P. Kline, who represents defendant, Harvey H. Miller, came on to Canton today specially from New York for the purpose of meeting counsel, and, if possible, agreeing upon this much disputed journal entry. Mr. Kline had expected to leave the city at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Columbus, but was necessarily detained until a later hour because of the failure of the attorneys to agree upon the journal entry. Deputy Clerk of Courts Agler stated that no transcript of the case, as ordered by the defendants' counsel, would be made out until a properly approved entry was spread upon the journal.

Judge Hole will be in Canton Monday morning to hold court, and if an application for a change of venue is made by the defendants the court will then take up the matter. Up to this time no application for a change of place of trial has been filed.

BOARD OF REVIEW.

The board of review is now in daily session with offices on the first floor of the court house, where all persons, who are fortunate enough to own real estate, and who claim that their property is listed too high, go and register their kick. As yet, they say, not a great many complaints have been entered. The board will be in session for several weeks longer.

INSPECTION TOUR.

The board of county commissioners left Friday morning on an inspection tour through several townships in the county to look over bridges and culverts. It is the duty of the commissioners to make these inspection tours annually.

VERDICT IN DAMAGE SUIT.

The jury in the case of Joseph M. Neal vs. Isaac Harter Milling Co., which case has been on trial during the last two days, returned their verdict Friday afternoon about 3 o'clock, allowing the plaintiff damages to the amount of $147.50. The plaintiff in his petition asked damages in the sum of $550, with interest, claiming that he bought a car load of flour from the milling company and they shipped it to Virginia; that it was to be branded as Neal's special brand; that it was an inferior quality of flour and he could not sell it, because of which he asked the damages mentioned. Attorneys McCaughy and Eggert for plaintiff and Lynch, Day and Day for defendant.

The jury having completed their work for the week, Judge Ambler excused them until next Monday morning at 10 o'clock and ordered the court constable to adjourn court until said time.

RECRUITS FOR THE PEN.

Saturday morning Sheriff Frank Wilson will leave for Columbus taking with him C. Mannerino, the Italian from Alliance, convicted and recently sentenced to five years imprisonment in the Ohio penitentiary for the murder of Shriver of Alliance. Paolo, his partner, also indicted for the same crime is still at large and his whereabouts is a mystery.

ANNUAL CLEANING.

The different janitors at the court house are at present busily engaged with their annual cleaning of the different offices about the building.
